

Name _____

$\frac{3}{4}$ ID _____

Abuse and Neglect 2008

10 Questions - True or False

- _____ 1) The most common victims of abuse are women, children, and elderly.
- _____ 2) Financial exploitation is considered a type of abuse.
- _____ 3) Bruises at various stages of healing are not usually consistent with physical abuse.
- _____ 4) Suicide attempts can be warning signs of domestic abuse.
- _____ 5) Health care professionals are not legally required to report abuse.
- _____ 6) When an older person gives a history inconsistent with the nature and extent of their injuries, it can be assumed that they are forgetful and confused.
- _____ 7) Rape is the only form of sexual abuse in a child.
- _____ 8) Fractures (especially spiral) can be a sign of child abuse.
- _____ 9) Elder neglect can occur when family members fail to secure appropriate care for the older adult due to concerns over lost inheritance.
- _____ 10) If abuse or neglect is suspected, the patient should be interviewed with as many family members present as possible to offer support.